

Academic recruitment for the GCC

LSI Recruitment is a British company, with HQ in London and a regional office in Dubai. We offer recruitment and manpower solutions to the Education sector in the Middle East. We specialise in academic staff for international schools, colleges and universities in the GCC.

Academic recruitment

For nearly 20 years we have been recruiting British, Irish, US, Canadian and other staff for our customers in the Middle East. With a strong candidate base, and a sophisticated applicant tracking system (ATS), we are able to recruit at all levels from junior Lecturers to Deans and Heads of Faculty. All our candidates are native speakers of English, educated at prestigious western universities and enthusiastic about working in the Middle East.

From our headquarters in central London, we provide a complete range of recruitment services

Services

- Executive search
- Manpower provision
- Advertising campaigns
- Background checking
- In-country support
- Mobilisation and logistics
- Dedicated project management
- Regional expertise
- Global capability
- Focus on people
- Innovative technology
- Long term or interim solutions

“ Since 2008 LSI has been recruiting teaching staff to work at Prince Mohammad University in Saudi Arabia. We have been tasked with headhunting faculty staff for PMU in a variety of disciplines from Design to Engineering.

“We enjoy an excellent working relationship with LSI, who we have always found to be professional and reliable in their dealings with PMU. We recommend this company to other organisations that are looking for a reliable recruiter in London.”

Director of International Affairs,
Prince Mohammad University,